Equal Employment Opportunity / Affirmative Action Policy Statement

This Statement reaffirms Community Action, Inc.'s policy of an open and equitable personnel system for all employees and job applicants in accordance with Federal and State legislation.

The Executive Director has the overall responsibility for the administration of Community Action, Inc.'s Equal Employment Opportunity / Affirmative Action Policy and is the Policy Liaison, located at 105 Grace Way, Punxsutawney, PA 15767-1209, telephone number (814) 938-3302; toll-free (800) 648-3381.

A successful Equal Employment Opportunity / Affirmative Action Policy requires the commitment and involvement of supervisors at all levels. Supervisors must do more than refrain from discriminatory practices and go beyond the maintenance of policies of passive nondiscrimination by taking positive, results-oriented steps toward the elimination of employment and career development barriers to groups such as minorities, women, aged, veterans, and individuals with disabilities.

Every effort will be made to hire and promote qualified members of all minority groups, women, and veterans into professional, technical, and supervisor classes in those areas where they have traditionally been underrepresented. Supervisors should establish career development programs, including appropriate opportunities for upward mobility. In addition, supervisors are responsible for increasing employment opportunities for all qualified employees and job applicants with disabilities, and for insuring reasonable accommodation is made to meet the physical or mental limitations of qualified applicants or employees.

Supervisors at all levels are expected to assist the Executive Director and to participate in Equal Employment Opportunity / Affirmative Action Policy implementation, planning, and monitoring for their assigned areas. Supervisors' performance relating to the success of the Policy will be evaluated in the same way as other objectives are measured.

No person in the performance of their duties, including recruitment, selection, appointment, placement, promotion, compensation, delegation, training, discipline, or separation shall discriminate against any person on the basis of race, color, religious creed, disability, ancestry, national or ethnic origin (including limited English proficiency), age, sex/gender (including pregnancy, childbirth, or related conditions), actual or perceived gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, lifestyle, political beliefs, union membership, participation or decision to refrain from participation in protected labor activities, marital status, familial status, parental status, military service, veteran status, genetic information, AIDS or HIV status, citizenship, possession of a General Equivalency Diploma (GED) instead of a high school diploma, use of a guide or support animal or because the user is a handler or trainer of guide or support animals, stereotypes or assumptions, whether the person is a victim of violent crime (including domestic violence), or other characteristics protected by federal or state law. Additionally, no person will retaliate against an individual for complaining about discrimination, filing charges, or participating in an investigation or lawsuit regarding discrimination.

Supervisors have a major responsibility to provide a work environment free from discrimination, intimidation, and harassment, including hate speech and sexual harassment. Supervisors will immediately address and not tolerate unlawful discrimination, harassment, or unprofessional conduct in the workplace. Supervisors will not retaliate against employees who exercise their right to register allegations of discrimination, assist or participate in investigations or activities related to administration of laws regarding equal employment opportunity, opposed any act or practice made unlawful by any law requiring equal opportunity; or exercised any other legal right projected by law requiring equal employment.

Applicants or employees with Equal Employment Opportunity / Affirmative Action Policy complaints or concerns should attempt to resolve informally by direct communication between the involved individuals or the help of a mediation by a third party, such as supervisor. However, if the conduct is severe, ongoing, or involves an individual in a position of authority, use of the formal complaint procedure is encouraged.

Formal complaints should be filed verbally or in writing with Susan K. Fusco, Policy Liaison, or any of the following:
